WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to Harrogate, United Kingdom for the 14th Meeting of the International Society of Systemic Autoinflammatory Diseases (ISSAID), from April 7 - 10 of 2027. This gathering brings together clinicians, researchers, and allied professionals dedicated to advancing the understanding and care of autoinflammatory diseases, an area that continues to evolve rapidly through scientific innovation and international collaboration.

We will explore new insights into the genetics, clinical management, and treatment of systemic autoinflammatory conditions. The programme reflects the breadth and depth of our field, featuring expert presentations, case discussions, and opportunities for meaningful dialogue between specialists from across the UK and beyond.

We are particularly delighted to host this meeting in Harrogate, a town known for its heritage of medicine, wellbeing, and hospitality, which provides the perfect setting for sharing knowledge and strengthening collaborations.

We wish you a stimulating and enjoyable meeting and look forward to the discussions, connections, and ideas that will shape the future of autoinflammatory diseases.

With best wishes,
Helen Lachmann & Sinisa Savic
On behalf of the Organising Committee

SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM

Important satellite symposium information

• All symposia speakers must be registered prior to the Meeting by the sponsor. The expenses (hotel, travel, registration) of symposia speakers, whether they are speakers of the ISSAID scientific programme, must be covered by the sponsor
• All satellite symposia must be held at the Meeting during official time slots offered by the Organisers
• All programmes must be submitted to the Scientific Committee for approval by January 2027
• All programmes will be published as submitted by the company/ sponsor

General satellite symposium guidelines

• Sponsors of satellite symposia may select topics and speakers
• Programmes, hand-outs and invitations must be submitted to the organising secretariat for approval
• Signposting, additional display or distribution of posters, brochures or any promotional material outside the satellite symposium rooms or outside the company exhibition stands and hospitality suite are not allowed
• ISSAID assumes that speakers and chairpersons of the satellite symposia will be contacted by the companies themselves to notify them of the time and place of sessions, to arrange for their registration, travel and accommodation
• ISSAID does not require speakers at the sponsored symposia to submit abstracts of their lectures. Companies can, however, publish their abstracts for distribution at the entrance of the sponsored symposium lecture room.
• Times and dates of the Satellite Symposia sessions will be announced on the Meeting website. The full session programme will be published in the programme.
